01 CHAPTER ONE
Your Child

№ 01

How does my child learn best?

Hands-on, through reading and narration, through video, or through structured repetition?

NOTES

№ 02

What is my child's current level ?

Not their grade level. Their actual reading level, math level, and attention span.

NOTES

№ 03

Does my child need structure or flexibility?

Some children thrive with a checklist. Others shut down when overscheduled.

NOTES

02 CHAPTER TWO
Your Teaching Style

№ 04

How much prep time can I realistically commit each week?

Charlotte Mason requires more planning. Traditional and online curricula require very little.

NOTES

№ 05

Do I need a script, or can I teach from principles?

Some curricula tell you exactly what to say. Others give you a framework and expect you to fill it in.

NOTES

03

CHAPTER THREE

Practical Considerations

№ 06

What is my total budget — including consumables?

Factor in student workbooks, manipulatives, readers, and supplements beyond the sticker price.

NOTES

№ 07

Have I seen sample pages or a free trial?

Never spend more than $50 on a curriculum you haven't seen sample pages for.

NOTES

№ 08

Does this work for multiple children simultaneously?

Check whether the program is designed for family-style use or individual grade levels only.

NOTES

04

CHAPTER FOUR

The Big Picture

№ 09

Does this align with our family's worldview and values?

Know where it stands before it arrives at your door.

NOTES

№ 10

What happens if this doesn't work?

Check the return policy and resale value before buying.
